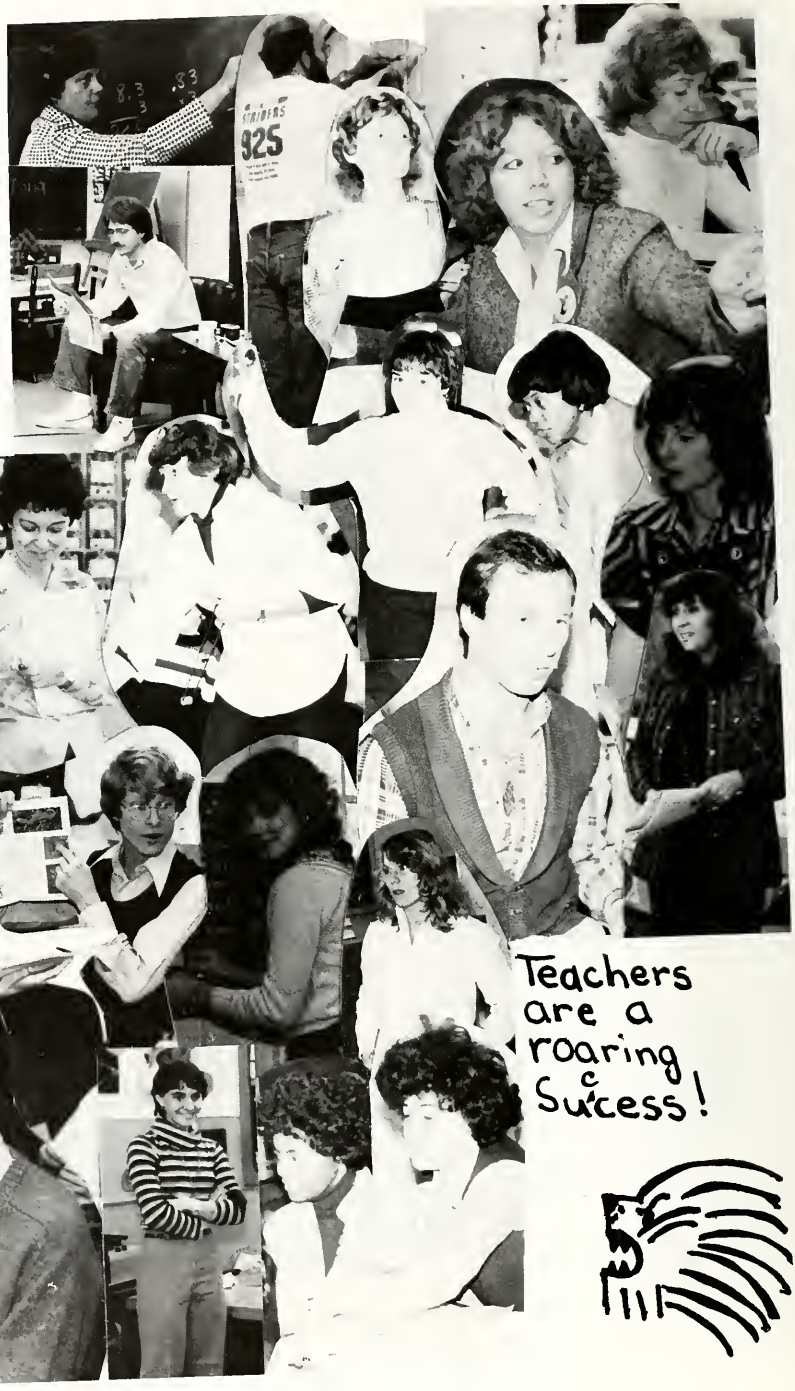
All hearts for teachers!



Teachers are a roaring success!

The Eagle

As he soars from the high peak
Searching for dinner
He gives out a shriek.
His motto is strength,
His game is survival,
Thus this huge creature
Has no rival.
Flying for eternity
He is king of the air,
Moving in the sky
Faster than a mare.

No job too big,

No job too small.

No matter what,

They'll do it all !!!

Friends are people too
Like them and they'll like you.
Like is the word
Though it might sound absurd.
If you don't try you may only have a few.

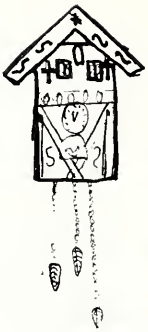
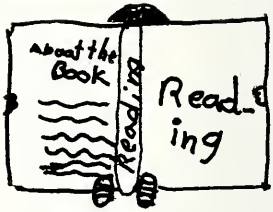
SCHOOL IS FUN

School is fun,
It's number one.
I like lunch,
It's like a brunch.
School is fun,
In K.E.S. #1
It's the best
Of all the rest!
by LaTanya





5th GRADE #1!

You and me
Are best friends,
And always
Will be
So if you see
What I mean
We are still Friends.
by Shauner

Who Am I ?

The trees ask me
And the ants want to see
Who am I ?

The earth from under
And the sky wonder
Who am I ?

I answer them all
Someone small
But a piece of it all.

Poems

Peaceful Sky

The sky is peaceful
With kites flying through the air
No strings are attached.

Mike Miller

A Tree

A tree so tall and green
Swaying back and forth and clean,
Perfect in its own way
Hour by hour, day by day.
In Fall they lose their leaves.
In Spring they grow back again.
Late Summer makes them glow,
Winter covers them with snow.
So if you see a tree...
Say "Hi!" for me!

Amy Nakanishi

White

Tell me again of the white doves flying
The red and white ribbons that are lying.
The morning dew drops ring on my head
And are falling so softly over flower beds.
Rainbows awaken at dawn of the day
People come out and say
Tell me again of the white doves flying
The red and white ribbons that are lying.

Nicole Williams

Shark

The shark is so swift.
It doesn't make much noise
Swimming and attacking
Other fish or men.
Its flesh is made like rubber
So the water bounces off;
That's why the shark
Is so swift in water.

Oliver Seewald

BLUE

Blue is high and sunny sky
Where only birds and airplanes fly.
Mornings when I go to school,
Blue is feeling fresh and cool.
Blue is feeling sad and true,
When my day of work is through.

Nick Rechtienne

RIVERS

Rivers are straight;
Their water is blue.
Rivers are meandering
As they go through
Towns and villages
On their way
To their home in the sea
Day by day.

Tanya Harrah

A FUNNY WHALE

There once was a whale
With a funny tail.
He lived in a tree
With a little bee,
And now he swims like a snail.

Chantel Sanders

BEYOND THE GATES OF TOMORROW

Beyond the gates of tomorrow,
There is a sparrow
That wishes most of all
The world was one peaceful ball.
And so do I
All of my life.
And so does my daddy
And his wife.

The Advisor's Farewell Note

Yes, Virginia! There is such a thing as an Elementary Yearbook. Little unknown People work on it, just for little girls and boys. They're proud little people who make much sacrifice to do something really special for children. A mean ole Lady makes them work so very hard. She really is very proud of them, and likes them all very much. If she wasn't a little mean, they would never finish their busy little jobs. So Virginia, when you look through your book, thank these little people (and even the mean [illegible]e Lady), for a job well done! So [illegible]e story ends,... until next yea[illegible]

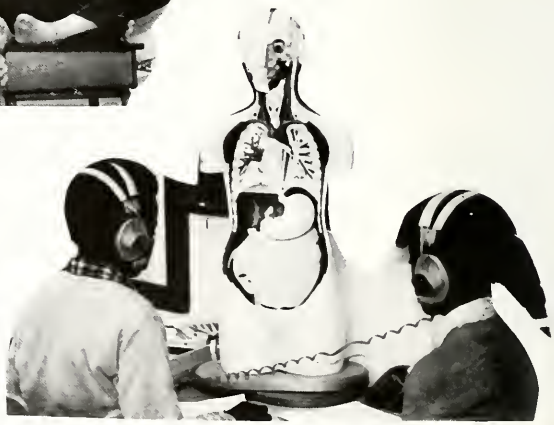
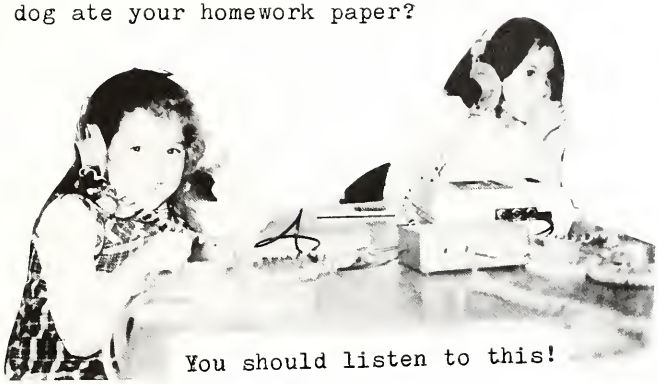
This must be the "new" math!



Is that what happens when you eat Twinkies?

You say your dog ate your homework paper?



You should listen to this!

Do what?

Boy, do I have a headache!

The furnace doesn't work again!

Have you seen the new boy?

ADVERTISEMENTS

The End

The nights were long,
The nights were late.
Often we wondered
If we'd make the date.

Oh, how we worked
And daily we feared;
Our work seemed greater
As the deadline neared.

But pasting and pict'ring
And trying to write,
Finally we've managed
Everything RIGHT!

After all the mistakes
That we've had to mend,
We finally present to you

THE END
